

FIRE AND ICE VOLUNTEER RESPONSIBILITIES

Thanks to all of you who have offered to help at the event!

General Information:

- Please be sure to stop at the volunteer tent by the gazebo to check in and get your volunteer badge and station assignment. Please be there by 10 am. Gates open at 11:00 am but if people are lined up and we are ready we will open early.
- Some food, coffee, and water will be in the main tent.
- Dress in layers!
- Please remember to drop off your volunteer badge at the main tent before you leave for the day.

Entrance Gate Volunteers and Beverage Ticket Sales:

- There are three entrance gates. There will be a map at the main tent, as well as, each gate indicating the gate locations.
- Tasting cards and beverage tickets will be sold at the gates.
- Entrance to the event is FREE, but tasting cards are a $10 donation. This allows a person to have a small taste from all the chili vendors. Beer and wine tickets are $7 each.
- The tasting tickets are available for sale from when gates open to approximately 2:30 pm or until you are asked to stop (based on chili availability).
- Beverage Sales: Tickets are $7 each for beer and wine. There should be at least one person (an adult) at each gate to check ID's and attach a wrist band. (There will be a sign at each ticket sale site indicating the birthdate that is the latest one can be born to be 21.) There will also be ticket sales by the beer vendors.
- If you are a gate person, please ask patrons to vote for their favorite chili by writing in the booth number on the back of their tasting ticket and dropping it in the bucket at one of the entrances as they leave the event. These must be turned in by 3 pm.
- Money will be collected periodically. If you need more change, please text Sally at (314) 401-1531 and be sure to include your gate or beer station #

Beverage Pourers:

- Patrons should have a wrist band and a ticket in order to get a beverage. If they do not, please direct them to the beverage ticket table by the beer stations. Tickets are $7.00 for beer and wine.
